There are all the summaries of the games played in the history of AFA, there are the photos of all the teams year by year, there are notes and many statistics so that the fan can know how we got to this present. Now we have an identity, this book is the DNI that our club needed and we chose August 8 because that day the institution was founded 87 years ago", expressed its authors Sergio Gómez and Gustavo Basiukevitz. The opening included the presentation of José María Marcos (director of the newspaper La Word of Ezeiza). Then, Gustavo Basiukevitz and Sergio Gómez, authors of the book, addressed a few words to the large audience gathered at the museum. Jorge "Bocha" Nuñez spoke, who is one of the most emblematic players in history. Also the director of the museum, Claudia Muscio, who graciously lent the facilities for the event and there were raffles for many t-shirts courtesy of the firm Il Ossso, but above all the emotions of many people who had not seen each other for more than 20 years reigned. 94. De Loof; Lucrecia Palacios and Gabriela Comte, Sergio. SERGIO DE LOOF: ¿SENTISTE HABLAR DE MI? Buenos Aires: Museo de Arte Moderno de Buenos Aires, 2020. First edition. ISBN: 9789876736091. 315p., color plates, indices, wrps. Paperback. New. (191076) $75.00
With curatorship of Lucrecia Palacios, this is the first anthological exhibition dedicated to the work of Sergio De Loof (Buenos Aires, 1962), as a tribute to his legacy in local culture, emphasizing his fashion shows and clothing. It also includes his diaries, a selection of unpublished documentary materials, his interventions in the Wipe magazine, and his paintings and installations from the mid-1980s to the present. No one could imagine that Sergio De Loof, king of immediacy and ephemeral art, would build such a complete file of his work. For years he kept hundreds of press clippings about him, photographs of his fashion shows and his friends, hundreds of VHS footage, annotations and clippings pasted in accounting notebooks. Among them, taken off and with its edges flattened, shines a portrait that could be dated in the early 1990s. The memory of the photographer is lost.". Read less

Volume 1*
The literary work Historia Quemera; Volume I: «Did you know that...» compiles, in 250 historical articles over the length and breadth of 360 pages, a good part of the multiform life of Huracán; each string of the Globe and the breakdown of its most varied natures counted in data.
Volume 2
From the pens of Gonzalo Hernán Minici, Pablo Viviani, Laura Corriale, Roberto Andrés Guidotti and Néstor Vicente, comes to light the second volume of Quemera History that proposes, through its 250 articles embodied in 510 pages, a journey by the aerostatic memories told from its events and characters.
Brochure*
The "Hurricane and the World Cup" edition of Historia Quemera is an embrace between the pages of the Globe and the FIFA World Cup, linked by protagonists, statistics, data and a chronology full of coincidences. It has the magic, art and meticulous rigor of Pablo Viviani

Congenital heart disease (CHD) is the most frequent congenital malformation. It is the second leading cause of death in the neonatal period and is responsible for more than 10% of infant mortality. Advances in the field of cardiology, cardiovascular surgery, and postoperative care make it possible to repair very complex CHD with good quality and long survival.

Technological progress in the area of ??images has contributed to perfecting the diagnostic process. Currently, it is possible to detect most CCs from 20 weeks of gestation. Therapeutic interventions for hemodynamics have increased. The development of new surgical techniques, improvements in cardiovascular anesthesia and extracorporeal circulation, advances in perioperative care, and multidisciplinary follow-up have radically changed the evolution of some heart diseases.

Who were the famous people who signed the national charter? What was your thought? The president of the Argentine Institute of Genealogical Sciences, Ernesto Spangenberg, clarifies, first of all, that genealogical works are not written today with nobility or vainglory, but to expose the documents that "teach the realities that a good genealogist does not hide, among these, mestizajes, fusions of races, non-marital affiliations". Reviewing the particular history of the 24 constituents allows us to point out characteristics and formulate conclusions, among which stands out a remarkable spirit of shared homeland among the signatories of the fundamental letter that the authors of the research link to the Creole origin in their maternal line of descent

"Historias insólitas de la Copa América" celebrates Copa America's century of existence through a collection of stories that detail the development of the tournament over the years and magnify the most unusual episodes that have happened over the course of its history, some of which are politically incorrect -- A spectator who scored a goal, a racist Brazilian president who did not want black players in his team, and a famous striker who played with diapers and a world record of wrong penalties in a match are just a sample of the remarkable stories that comprise this new work by Luciano Wernicke. Wernicke is also the author of "Historias insólitas de los Mundiales de fútbol", "Historias insólitas de los Juegos Olímpicos", "Historias insólitas del fútbol", "Doctor y campeón", "James, nace un crack" and "Historias insólitas de la Copa Libertadores".
